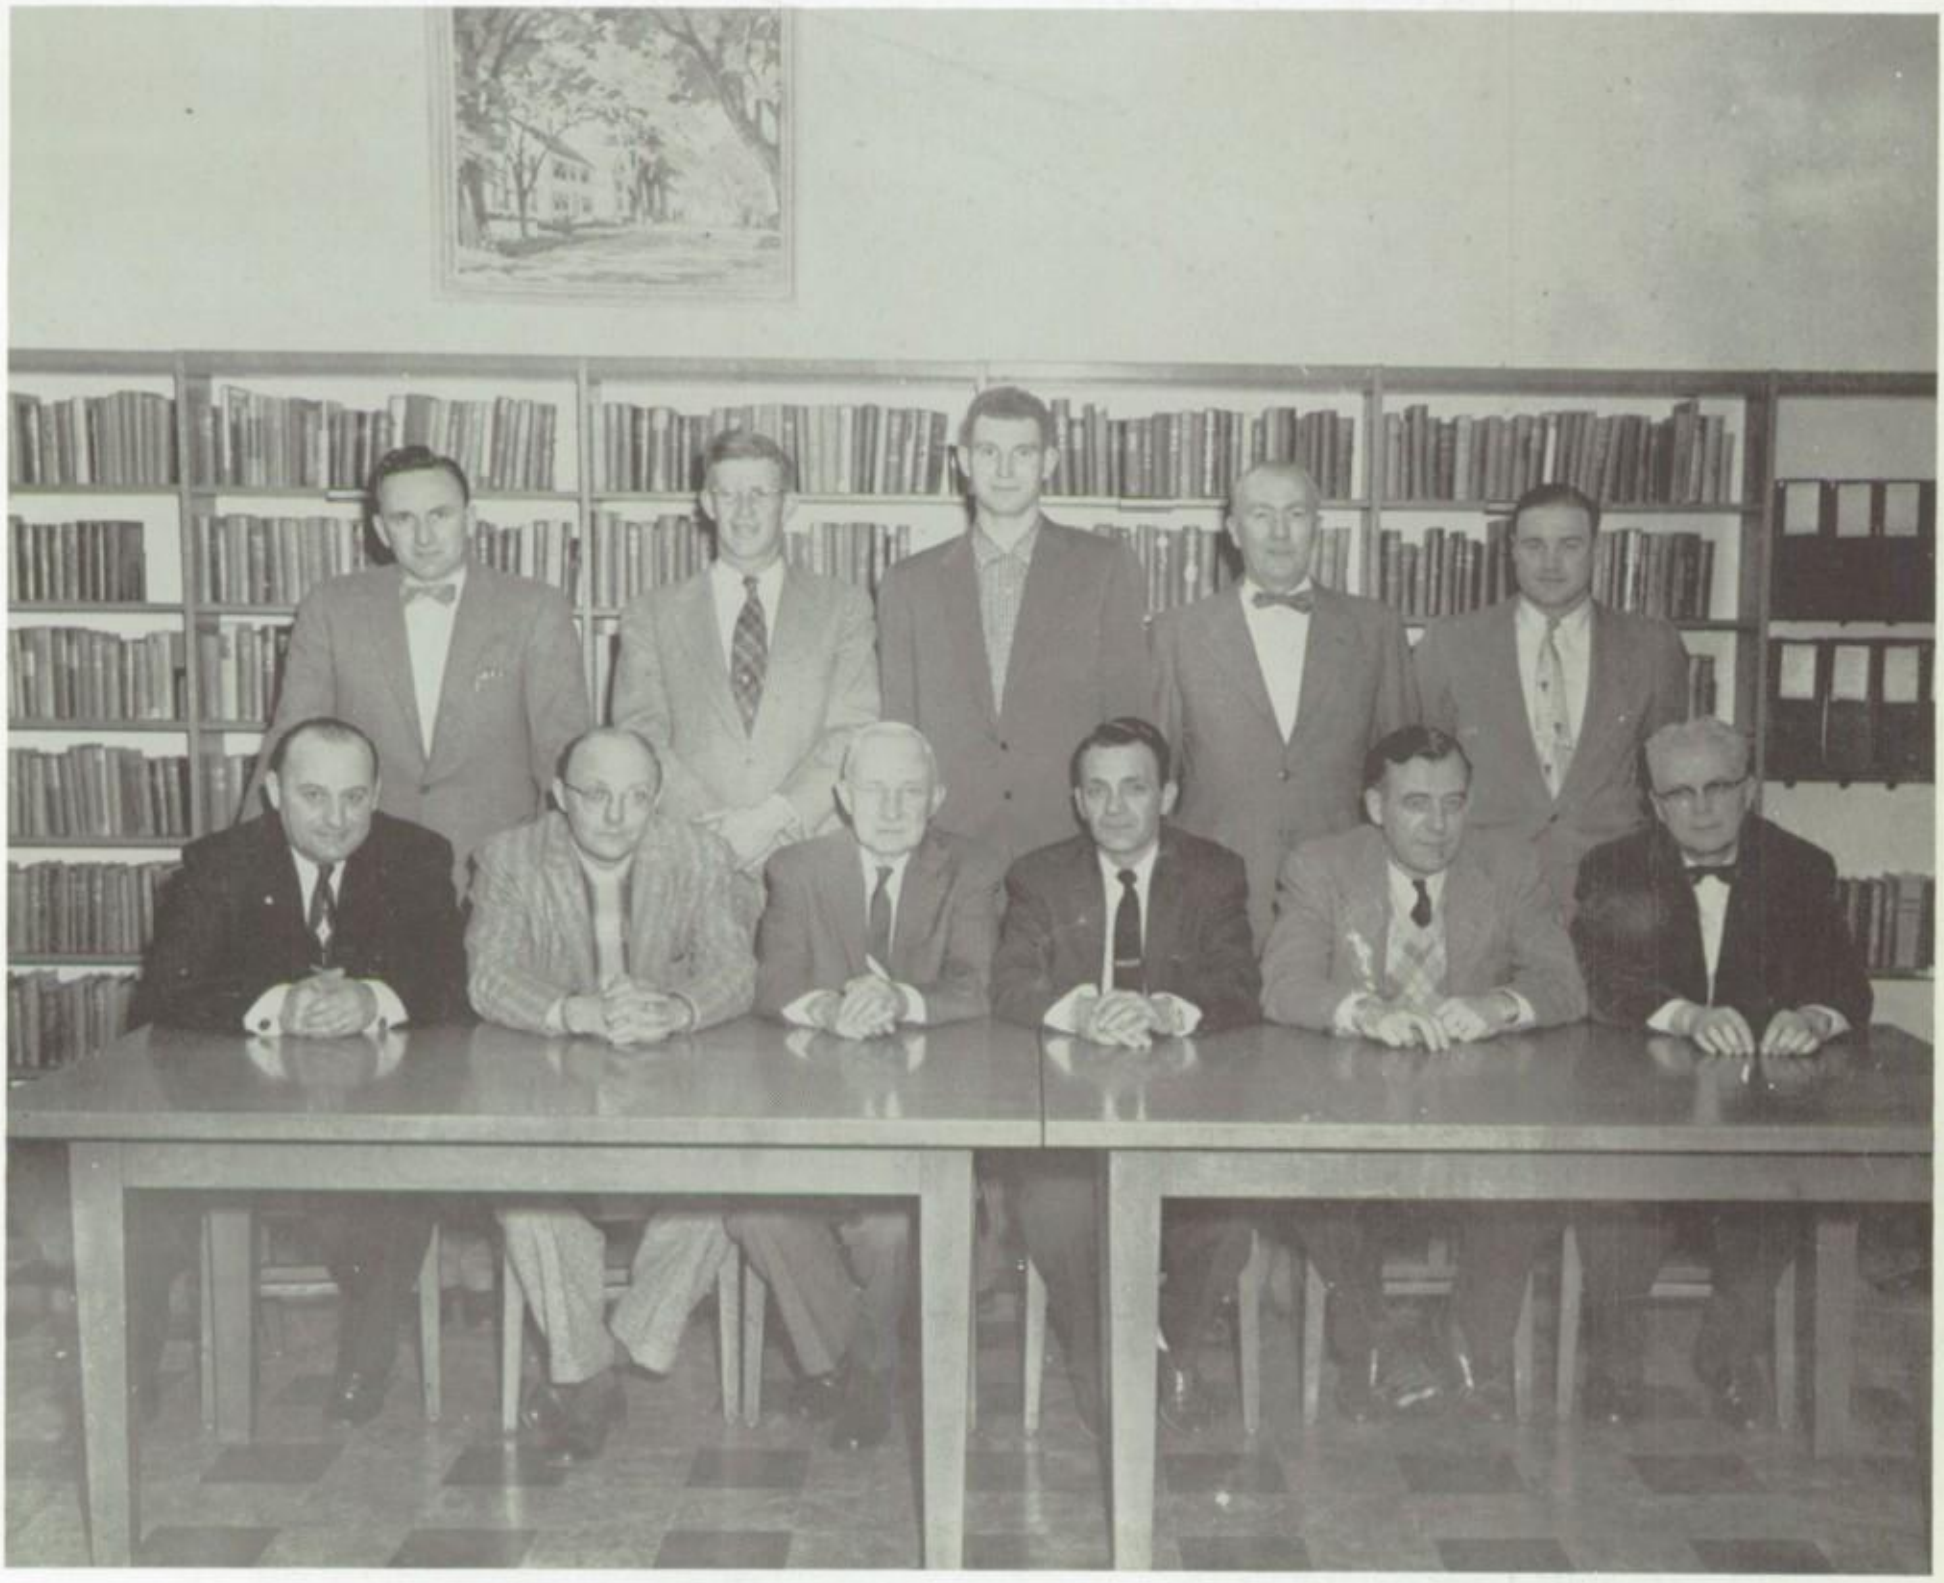
WE DEDICATE . . .

JUDSON F. KAST, A.B., M.A.

With gratitude and sincerity this book is dedicated to our former principal, Judson F. Kast, whose untiring efforts for a "better" Sayre High School will long be remembered. During his twenty-three years of devoted service, of giving advice, and of patient guidance, he enjoyed the respect and friendship of all.

BOARD OF EDUCATION



Seated: Mr. Harold Deubler, Mr. Frank Cichocki, Mr. James Lynch, Mr. Joseph Garfield, Mr. Paul Shedden, Mr. Samuel Kresge.

Standing: Mr. Radford Haner, Mr. Donald Hicks, Mr. Thomas Higley, Mr. William Johnston, Mr. Milford Farr.

Absent: Mr. William Griswold, Mr. James Presher, Mr. Clarence Farr.

The Board of Education is the body which serves to govern the many affairs of the Sayre school system. It consists of three elected assemblages—the directors of the Sayre Area Joint High School, the board members of the Sayre Area Schools, and the representatives of the Sayre Borough School District, the Executive Committee being composed of representatives of each of the three groups.

Of the Sayre Area Joint School directors, seven come from Sayre with two from each of the other districts which include South Waverly Borough, Athens Township, and Litchfield Township.

Sayre schools are in the hands of very capable men who spend much time and energy in upholding Sayre's fine school program.

H. AUSTIN SNYDER
B.S., M.Ed.
Superintendent

During his many years as superintendent at Sayre, Mr. Snyder has always executed his duties with the utmost ability.

In addition to his various tasks as superintendent he is an enthusiastic supporter of extra-curricular activities and vitally interested in community affairs.

In his spare time he finds enjoyment in his favorite diversions, hunting and fishing.

Despite a heavy schedule Mr. Snyder finds time to display a genuine interest and understanding in the problems and achievements of the students and to be on hand with customary friendliness and good humor.

FRANK S. WALK, JR.
B.S., M.Ed.
Principal

Newly acquainted with Sayre High School is the principal, Mr. Frank S. Walk, Jr., who came to Sayre this year from Coatesville.

In a busy schedule Mr. Walk has the responsibility of organizing activities, counseling students, and administering programs.

Aside from his regular duties he is a firm supporter of extra-curricular activities and encourages sports of all types.

Politics and gardening are leisure time activities whenever time permits.

Through his fairness and genuine interest in the individual achievements of the students Mr. Walk has acquired the respect and friendship of the school community.

CLASSES

MECHANICAL DRAWING

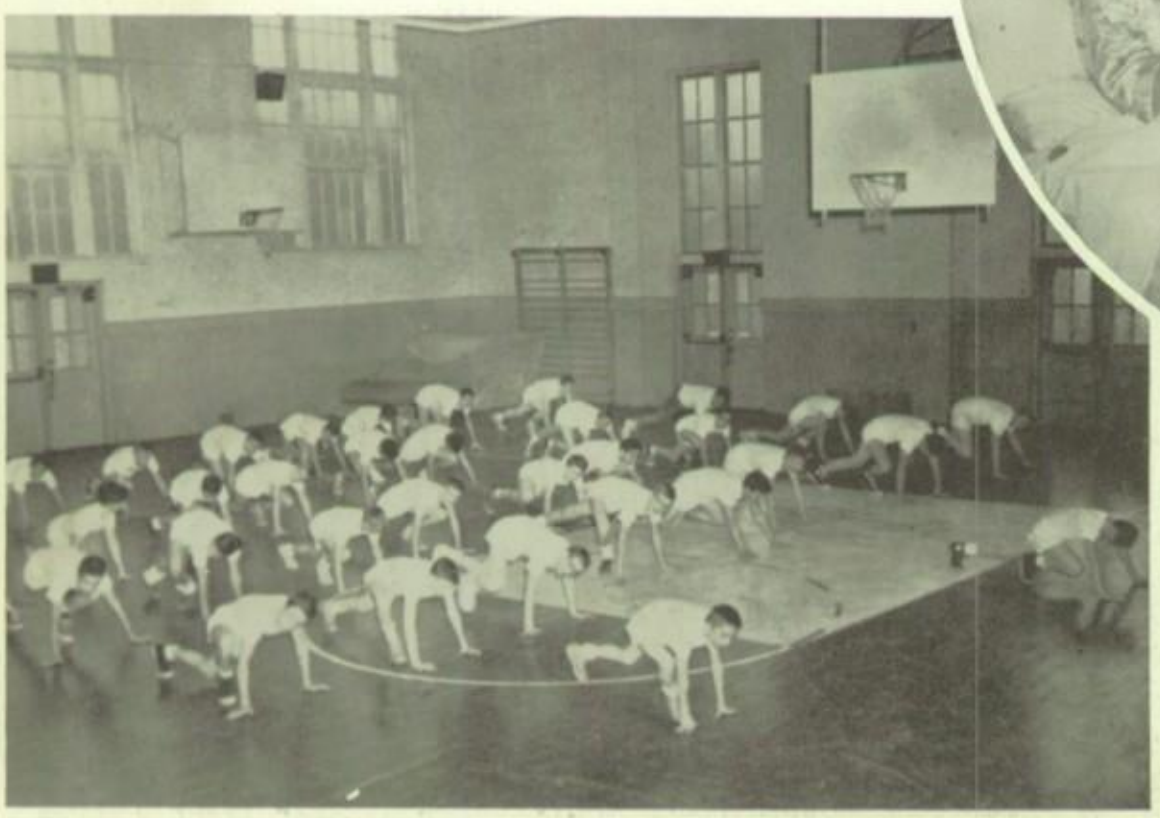
This subject teaches how to represent an object accurately on paper. Mr. Davis first teaches fundamentals like good printing, accurate drawing, and neatness. From easy drawings the students progress to harder ones such as isometric drawings. Later in the year some work is done with pen and ink.

FRENCH

French students practice their skill in writing the language. Conversation, listening to records, and translation combine to help students have a better understanding of French.

HOME NURSING

Senior girls meet once a week for Home Nursing class where they learn how to cope with simple home emergencies and prevent illness in the family group.



PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Physical Education offers all boys a chance for competitive sports twice a week. Under the direction of Mr. Rushin, the boys learn the rules and methods of playing such sports as football, soccer, basketball, volleyball, softball, and wrestling.

HOME ECONOMICS

Home Economics students here point out a display of foodstuffs they prepared for Christmas. Girls in Home Ec divide their year between foods and clothing. The annual exhibit climaxes the year's activity.

SHOP

In the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades, shop is taught to boys twice a week. The boys work with wood, metal, and sometimes with plastics. In senior high, boys who elect shop take it every day and work on more difficult projects.

PROBLEMS OF DEMOCRACY

American Observer and map study bring about emphasis on current events, while problems of social and economic living are studied from the textbook.

OFFICE PRACTICE

Senior Business girls, after learning the basic business subjects such as Typing, Bookkeeping, and Shorthand, are taught the principles of filing and operating business machines in Office Practice. Then, during the second semester, the girls apply their knowledge while working in various offices throughout town.

CHEMISTRY

Laboratory experiments give students first hand experience with reactions of chemicals. Additional knowledge is gained through reference work and textbooks as a part of classroom procedure.

MATHEMATICS

Solid Geometry and Trigonometry further a student's skills in advanced Mathematics. A good background is provided for these subjects by the study of Algebra I and II, and Plane Geometry.

VOCAL MUSIC

Vocal Music is chosen by students who enjoy singing and wish a diversion from the regular routine of classroom work. Much hard work and preparation is devoted to the annual Christmas and Easter Concerts which highlight this fine musical program.

ACTIVITIES

STUDENT COUNCIL

First row: Derrig, Secretary; Rumble, Vice President.

Second row: Carroll, Treasurer; Brehm, President.

The Student Council, the governing body of the high school, is composed of one member from each homeroom and one delegate at large from both the Junior and Senior classes. Meetings are held on Monday of each week during successive school periods.

In order to provide opportunities for student co-operation within the school and to promote worthy school activities, the Student Council was created several years ago.

One of its major projects for the past three years was the compiling of data for a Student Council Handbook. The book was completed this year and was distributed to all students in January.

Having lunch line and study hall duty are two of the activities of members during the school day.

First row: Liddiard, Derrig, Francke, Deubler, Nobles, Bowen, Alliger, Patrick.

Second row: Walt, Rumble, Stark, Solomon, White, Park, Braund, Brehm, Forkan.

Third row: Potter, Scanlin, Carroll, Wells, Machutes, Field, Maurer, Hutsick, Dugan.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Membership in the National Honor Society is one of the highest honors which can be bestowed upon a high school student.

Students eligible for the Honor Society must have an average of 90% or better in their sophomore year or must be in the upper tenth of their class.

Juniors are admitted to the Society on probation for they must maintain first honor grades as juniors and later as seniors to become permanent members.

Excellent grades are not the only requirement for admission; qualities of character, leadership, and service are also considered.

The primary objective of the National Honor Society is the creation of an enthusiasm for scholarship.

Sponsoring the organization is Mrs. Agnes Flynn.

OFFICERS

Scanlin, President; Ashley, Recording Secretary; Quatrini, Vice President; Worblewski, Secretary.

First row: Humphrey, Rumble, Kaplan, Ashley, Simpson, Shershen.

Second row: Vough, Woods, Reynolds, Quatrini, Potter, Lesher, Worblewski.

Third row: Nobles, Arcesi, Scanlin, Field, Rockman, Brehm, Carroll.

Absent: Miller, Brown.

NATIONAL THESPIANS

OFFICERS

First row: Welch, Secretary; Taylor, Vice President.

Second row: Baglini, Treasurer; Kays, President.

"Act well your part; there all the honor lies"—this is the motto of the National Thespian Society, an honorary dramatic organization, sponsored by Mrs. Wildrick.

For membership in the Sayre Troupe number 1151, a total of thirteen points is required, each point representing ten hours of work in plays, radio broadcasts, and promoting interest in dramatics.

A student fulfilling these requirements receives a life membership in this non-secret, non-social organization which entitles him to a year's subscription to "Dramatics" magazine.

The National Thespian Society is devoted to the advancement of standards of excellence in the field of dramatic arts.

First row: Humphrey, Taylor, DeSisti.

Second row: Welch, Carroll, Bond, Thomas.

Third row: Baglini, Kays, Snyder, Miller.

Absent: Collins.

CAP AND CUE

Under the direction of Mrs. Wildrick, the Cap and Cue consists of any Junior or Senior student who desires to increase his knowledge of dramatics. The members sometimes attend plays produced by Ithaca College in order that they may obtain for themselves a greater appreciation of the classical plays.

Giving an award to the outstanding boy and girl in dramatics at graduation is one of the fine activities of the group. In addition, the Cap and Cue sponsors the National Thespian Society of the high school.

Pryslopski, Secretary; Ashley, President; Field, Vice President; Bond, Treasurer.

Third row: Tyson, Arcesi, Rockman, Field, Foley, Leahy.

REPORTERS' CLUB

The Reporters' Club, newly formed this year, is under the direction of Miss Geraldine Stocum. The main purpose of the club is to discuss the activities of the school during the meetings and then to write them up. The members of the club are given different assignments each week. After their assignments have been completed and approved they are sent to the "Evening Times" where they appear in the "School News" section of the paper.

ART CLUB

Under the supervision of Mr. Layman, the twenty members in the Art Club have learned to appreciate what they see and what is being done in the field of fine art. The activities of this particular club include the opportunities of sketching from life, working with ceramics, and learning the many different techniques used by different artists. The art work done by the members usually shows time and patience used carefully and efficiently. At the close of each year the members of the Art Club feel that their time and patience have successfully helped them reach and enjoy an important achievement in the field of fine art.

Standing: Willson, Williamson, Bryan, Kays.

DANCE BAND

For those who truly enjoy playing music and wish to broaden their knowledge of music, the Dance Band is intended for just this purpose. Under the direction of Mr. Hauver, the Dance Band engages in playing popular music and jazz. The group plays for many school functions, such as the Redskin Review. Members of this club develop new techniques while playing together. Usually the members are able to play more than one type of musical instrument but it is not required that they do so. Many of those who play in this group are greatly inspired and they go on to form their own small dance bands.

MAJORETTE CLUB

Flashing batons and marching drills show that the Majorette Club is in session. The Majorette Club, organized by the high school majorettes and sponsored by Miss Marcia Knapp, enables girls from the eighth to eleventh grades to learn the fundamentals and skills of baton twirling and strutting. Thus, the members of the club are better prepared to face majorette tryouts in the Spring.

First row: Northrup, Beers, Olmstead, Deubler, Regan, Kellogg, Talada, Campbell, Heliker.

Second row: Osborn, Crocker, Hoyle, Goble, Quatrini, Johnson, Alexander, Marshall, Field.

Second row: Willson, Pryslopski, Lyons, Ennis, Welch, Sloat.

Third row: Vough, Staight, Snyder, Tyson, Miceli, Miller, Powell.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The Future Teachers of America Club, sponsored by Mr. Cooley, is especially for students considering a career in teaching. Some of the various activities the club undertakes are teaching in the grade schools, an annual trip to one of the many state teachers colleges, and reporting on various colleges and their aspects. In this way, the club hopes to create not only enthusiasm for, but also a greater understanding of this fine profession. Officers elected for the year were: President, Donna Worblewski; Vice President, Sandra Humphrey; Secretary, Jane Welch; Treasurer, Nancy Theetge; and Reporter, Diana Snyder.

SCIENCE CLUB

Under the capable sponsorship of Mr. Antonelli, the science and chemistry teacher, a group of students from the senior high possessing a genuine interest in the advanced sciences has been incorporated into a group called the Science Club. It was organized for the main purpose of providing an opportunity for these students to further their knowledge of scientific principles through various projects and discussions. Plans were made toward the acquisition of a club insignia.

First row: Trainer, Solomon, Tyson, Leahy, Arey, Smith.

Second row: Woods, Kepner, Reynolds, Horton, Little, Dunne, Foley.

Third row: Parr, Agnew, Allis, Brown, Arcesi, Parsons, Sjostrom, Potter.

THE JUNIOR TRI-HI-Y

One of the most popular and outstanding clubs in junior high school is the Junior Tri-Hi-Y sponsored by Miss Geraldine Stocum. Members of this organization have set their goal high: "It is our purpose to strengthen our bodies, develop our minds, worship God, and work together for a fine community and a better world." Highlighting the club's program are "Teen Talk" discussions in which guest speakers are featured. As a branch of the Young Women's Christian Association, the Tri-Hi-Y's program is aimed at developing good Christian character.

PERSONAL USE TYPING CLUB

Under the direction of Miss Bouton, the members of the Personal Use Typing Club were taught the basic fundamentals by the use of various finger exercises and other prescribed courses of study. Branching out they learned how to type letter-heads, envelopes and outlines. With the acquirement of these skills, the members were expected to use these aptitudes correctly and efficiently.

First row: Faltisco, Surace, Solowiej.

Second row: Wertz, Hutsick, Rossillo, Pietro.

Third row: Blake, Johnson, Benjamin, Saxon, Ciavardini, Simonds, Johnson.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The Future Homemakers of America Club is under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Collins. The club was formed this year because so many students asked for it. The main purposes of the club are to teach the students to better understand the values and preparation of food and to learn the sewing skills important to the home. Some time is spent in learning about family relations.

LIBRARY COUNCIL

Working together and working alone with responsibility are important phases of learning for the twenty-three girls in the Library Council. This year, under the direction of the school librarian, Miss Matanle, the girls have had experience in receiving and recording money from book fines. They have learned to shelve books and stamp them for use. They also prepare new books for reading, and count and file cards of many other books. Such experience is valuable to the interested girls who will want a future job in this particular field of work.

First row: McIntire, McCutcheon, Donlin, Hill, Rolfe, Rothholz, Beeman.

Second row: Reynolds, Johnson, Hill, Keener, Santucci, Eldred, Murray, Schrader.

Second row: Kaplan, Bailey, Adney, Lesher, Regan, Glaser, Corner, Ellis.

Third row: Epstein, Williamson, Johnston, Wells, Retter, Billings, Bizilia, Moore.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

Mr. Chaffee is head of the Photography Club this year. The members learn the useful arts of developing negatives, making prints, and working with trick photography. The chief project, among others, is the building of and taking pictures with a pinhole camera. The purpose of the Photography Club is to help the twenty-eight students, from grades seven through twelve, to take better pictures.

EIGHTH GRADE SCIENCE CLUB

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Agnes Flynn, the Eighth Grade Science Club is focusing its work on individual projects. Most of the club members are interested in the field of science pertaining to rockets and earth satellites. Study from the "Current Science," a weekly Science Newspaper, is also a vital part of their club work.

BRADFORD COUNTY HISTORY CLUB

Making its debut this year is the newly organized Bradford County History Club. Under the direction of Mr. Skerpon, this club is open to students of junior high school. The principal objective of the club is to acquaint the students with Bradford County. Such topics as history, resources, industries and different sites in Bradford County are discussed during the club period.

GRIDIRON CLUB

The Gridiron Club, under the direction of Mr. Haggerty, is made up of boys in the 9th, 10th, and 11th grades interested in football. They meet once a week and discuss rules and methods of the game. Another purpose of the club is to encourage action which will make the athlete looked up to by the rest of the school.

JUNIOR PROM

Following the theme of "Rhapsody in Roses" the gym was transfigured into a soft pink and white garden scene where many couples danced to the music of Tommy Sandroni and his orchestra.

The highlight of the scene was the queen's throne, a rose-covered swing at the far end of the gym. In addition to this, the bandstand was covered with trellises of roses. Bart Mandarano, the class president, crowned Sandy Soprano "Queen of the Prom," thus ending a memorable evening for all.

SENIOR PROM

On Saturday December 7, many couples waltzed to Don Alliger's music at "The Snow Ball," the 1958 Senior Prom.

The gym, decorated in white crepe paper with a red-lighted Christmas tree in the center and smaller ones surrounding the dance floor, created a dramatic background for a memorable occasion.

The lovely queen, Donna Worblewski, escorted by Gerald Pedini, was crowned by Senior President Edward Wertz and reigned over the dance from an authentic sleigh.

STUDENTS

Ruth and Ben attended classes every day and visited many business establishments, industries, and points of interest in the valley, while at the same time learning the typical American way of life from their host families.

Throughout their visit Ruth and Ben gave Sayre High students an opportunity to increase their understanding of other peoples and countries.

REDSKIN REVUE

"Beautiful Babies" keep the audience entertained.

Between-the-acts chatter by M.C.'s Kaplan and Quatrini.

Affording a variety of entertainment was the annual production of the Redskin Revue. Presented by the student body under the direction of Mr. Mortimer, the program consisted of various types of skits, pantomines, dance acts, and vocal and instrumental numbers. The mood was effectively set by the theme of "Space Travel" portrayed in the colorfully decorated backdrop while the orchestra provided the necessary musical background. Kept moving at a lively pace by the masters of ceremonies, Paul Kaplan and John Quatrini, the production proved to be a highly entertaining and successful one.

CAREER DAY

Mr. Walk, Mr. Lynch, Dr. Wertz, and Mr. Mortimer.

Dr. Frederick Wertz, president of Lycoming College, emphasizes a point during the keynote speech.

Realizing the importance of a well chosen educational program, the guidance department has for the last eight years presented a "Career Day." On this day students have the opportunity of meeting with representatives of various professions in group conferences.

The morning schedule includes three group vocational conferences. Each student chooses the conferences which pertain to his particular field of interest.

The afternoon schedule features a general assembly with an outstanding guest speaker who addresses the student body and faculty on a topic relating to the theme of Career Day. Following this address the Juniors and Seniors are given the opportunity of meeting with college representatives in order to become acquainted with all aspects of their respective colleges. Those students not wishing to attend these meetings may proceed to another group conference.

This program, now under the direction of Mr. Mortimer, has met with much enthusiastic response on the part of the student body and has been of great importance in solving their many problems.

One of many long rehearsals

"Daddy Long Legs," a play of four acts directed by Miss Geraldine Stocum, was presented April 6, 1957 by a cast of sixteen, along with six seventh grade students.

The story which takes place in a northeastern orphanage characterizes a pretty but hard-working girl at the home, who with the aid of her unknown benefactor is given a chance for a normal life.

Having been proven wrong in her belief that her benefactor was old, she learns that in reality Daddy Long Legs is but a young man who falls hopelessly in love with her.

SENIOR PLAY

Directed by Mrs. Gertrude Holst, the Senior Class on November 22 presented a three-act comedy entitled "Three Blind Dates."

The plot revolves about Katy Ellis, a young teenager who tries to interest her scientific-minded brother George in girls. Katy and her eager-beaver friends, give George's room a collegiate touch with girls' pictures and athletic equipment. Alfred, a skull belonging to George, presides throughout the action of the play, providing much humor.

Mr. Ellis has tried for a long time to contact Mr. Jones about an automobile contract with no success. When he learns that Mr. Jones's daughter Janet is interested in George, he insists George date Janet.

After much frustration on Kathy's part, George finally gives in for the sake of a scientific experiment, and takes Janet to the Country Club Dance.

Seated: DeSisti, Carroll, Humphrey, Thomas, Snyder.
Standing: Taylor, Baglini, Miller, Lorenz, Kays.

Fred Baglini performs a very vital experiment.

Dick Kays seems to be emphasizing an interesting point.

MAY FESTIVAL

May Day activities included a trampoline act by senior high Physical Education students.

With the opening days of May comes a gala occasion filled with pomp and pageantry, the May Festival. Highlighting the program in which students from all the Sayre schools participate was the coronation of the queen, Elizabeth Saxe, by Paul Chacona. The traditional winding of the May Pole set off a festival of song and dance which was brought to a climax as the queen escorted by her attendants descended from the throne.

King Joe Solowiej crowns lovely Betty Saxe queen of the May Festival.

May Court Attendants: Sager, Taylor, Calveric, Kohler, Lynch, Tyson.

VOCAL MUSIC

Under the skilled direction of Mr. Greenham, the vocal music department was greatly enlarged this year. It is now composed of five groups all of which, with the exception of the Choral Club, meet in regularly scheduled classes.

Programs are presented for the entertainment of the parents as well as for the student body, and the Choral Club frequently entertains at various functions outside the school program. These groups also participate in regularly scheduled events such as the Redskin Revue and the May Festival.

Each year, members are chosen to represent Sayre High School in the country and district music festivals.

This department, through continuous effort on the part of both director and students, is becoming an increasingly important asset to Sayre in creating and affording an opportunity for an ever-widening interest in group singing.

SENIOR

DISTRICT BAND

Reynolds, Polinski, Mandarano, Willson.

The Senior Band under the baton of Nelson Sickler is one of the largest student organizations in the school. Membership is open to all those musically inclined.

During football season the band practiced many hours to get in top shape to entertain during half time. The Drum and Bugle Corps, composed of extremely talented band members, was a big feature at the home football games.

After football season, the band turned to playing the lighter and more classical type of music. Practice was held activities period on Tuesdays and Thursdays. During that time the band rehearsed diligently in preparation for the annual spring concert in March.

MAJORETTES

Kneeling: Heliker.

Standing: Field, Patsy, Tyson, Osborne, Northrup.

First row: Mandarano, Kays, Welch, Worblewski, Bailey, Braund, Warner, Dowd.

Center, first row: Beach, Northrup, Keeney, McWatters, Johnston, Kaplan.

Standing: Rumble, Zello, Kepner, Solomon, Tyson, Everett, Kenish.

Left, second row: Trainer, Bonney, Skinkle, Staight, Loomis, Rifenberg.

BAND

In order to acquire the necessary funds for the purchase of the Juniors' sweaters, the band undertook several projects. Magazine selling proved very profitable in years before and so was continued this year. The magazine project could not have been carried out successfully except for the help of the fine officers: President, Linda Spaulding; Vice President, Elizabeth Taylor; and Secretary-Treasurer, Paul Kaplan.

The band played for many civic programs, including the Halloween and Memorial Day Parades and the dedication of Guthrie Square. During these parades the band displayed fine musical ability as well as marching skill.

The annual band picnic enjoyed by all members was the big social event of the year.

Senior Band has proved very rewarding and enjoyable to all who have participated in it.

Mr. Sickler, Sayre's versatile band director.

DRUM AND BUGLE CORPS

First row: Ashley, Schultz, Spaulding, Solomon.

Second row: Barton, Zello, Carroll, Kenish, Potter.

First row: Reynolds, Gorman, Welty, Ferguson, Johnston, Willson, Taylor.

Third row: Sloat, Bizili Jennings.

Standing: Everett, Schrader, Solowiej, Shaffer, Rogers, Smith, Rolfe.

JUNIOR BAND

The Junior Band under the tutelage of Nelson Sickler is composed of students in junior high school. It is classified as a club, and all those who receive instrumental instruction through the school are required to join this organization.

The band practices every Wednesday during activities period. At this time a music program is prepared to be presented prior to the Senior Band concert in March.

The primary function of this group is to give the members experience playing as a group and to prepare them for the challenge of Senior Band.

As a student continues to play in Junior Band he not only gains self-confidence in his ability to play but also new methods and techniques of playing.

Opening at home against Canton, the Redskins spotted the Warriors a 7-0 lead because of costly fumbles. In the second quarter, Tom Flynn scored from 8 yards out to make it 7-6. The second half was all Sayre. Jerry Pedini went over from the one and the Redskins almost scored again. The final was 12-7.

The next week was the same story. Wyalusing grabbed an early score. But two long runs by Dido Brown gave Sayre a 12-7 halftime lead. The second half saw Pedini make big gains and score twice; Ken Deubler ran a punt back 60 yards to score. The Rams also scored once to make the count 31-13.

With three first-stringers injured, Sayre traveled to Scranton Central. The powerful Eagles showed no mercy as they rolled up a 52-12 score. Sayre's TD's came in the first half, which ended 26-12. Tom Flynn scored once and passed to Jack Nittinger for the other score.

The game with Athens was a nightmare. Playing at home for the last time, the Redskins couldn't do anything right as the Bulldogs took a 21-0 victory. Athens scored on a long runback with an intercepted pass, a safety, a long pass play, and another long run.

The following week at Troy, Sayre won a 13-12 thriller. Troy put up a terrific battle and took a 12-0 lead. Then Sayre started to roll. Tom Flynn passed to Jack Nittinger for six, then with one and one-half minutes to go, Flynn hit Bob Sutherland in the end zone. For the vital extra point, Flynn passed again, this time to Ken Hildebrandt.

Because of the flu epidemic, the Forty Fort game was cancelled and the Waverly game postponed. The 'Skins' next action was in Towanda, and they took home a 28-13 win. Dido Brown scored first, but Towanda matched it. Then Flynn scored a long run and Pedini hit paydirt from the nine. In the second half Brown scored on a long run to end Sayre's scoring.

In the final game, Sayre played at Waverly, and played tremendous ball. In the first six minutes, Dido Brown scored on runs of 50 and 24 yards to give Sayre a 12-0 lead. Sayre held the Wolverines until the last minute, when they scored on a long pass to make it 12-6.

Second row: Sutherland, Quatrini, Hutsick, Pedini, Flynn, Kennedy, Brown.

BASKETBALL

The Redskins got off to a good start by defeating Waverly up there 64-60. The score was tied at halftime but Sayre pulled away to win. A bad start cost Sayre the game at Johnson City. The Wildcats cashed in on every chance to take a 71-52 win.

The 'Skins dropped two to a powerful Binghamton Central club, 73-56 here and 56-53 in Binghamton. Again, a poor start cost Sayre a win in Binghamton.

Sayre got back on the winning trail at Troy with an east 51-27 victory. Then, in a thriller at home, Sayre smothered Wyalusing 69-49.

The same story—a bad start—turned the trip to Canton into a nightmare. Canton led all the way and won 53-47.

VARSITY

Kneeling: Manager Kingston, Brehm, Potter, Keene, Ferguson, Coach Hutchison.

Standing: Flynn, Arcesi, Scanlin, Baird, Benjamin, Campbell, Strayves, Bobick.

VARSITY SENIORS: Brehm, Flynn, Baird, Scanlin, Keene.

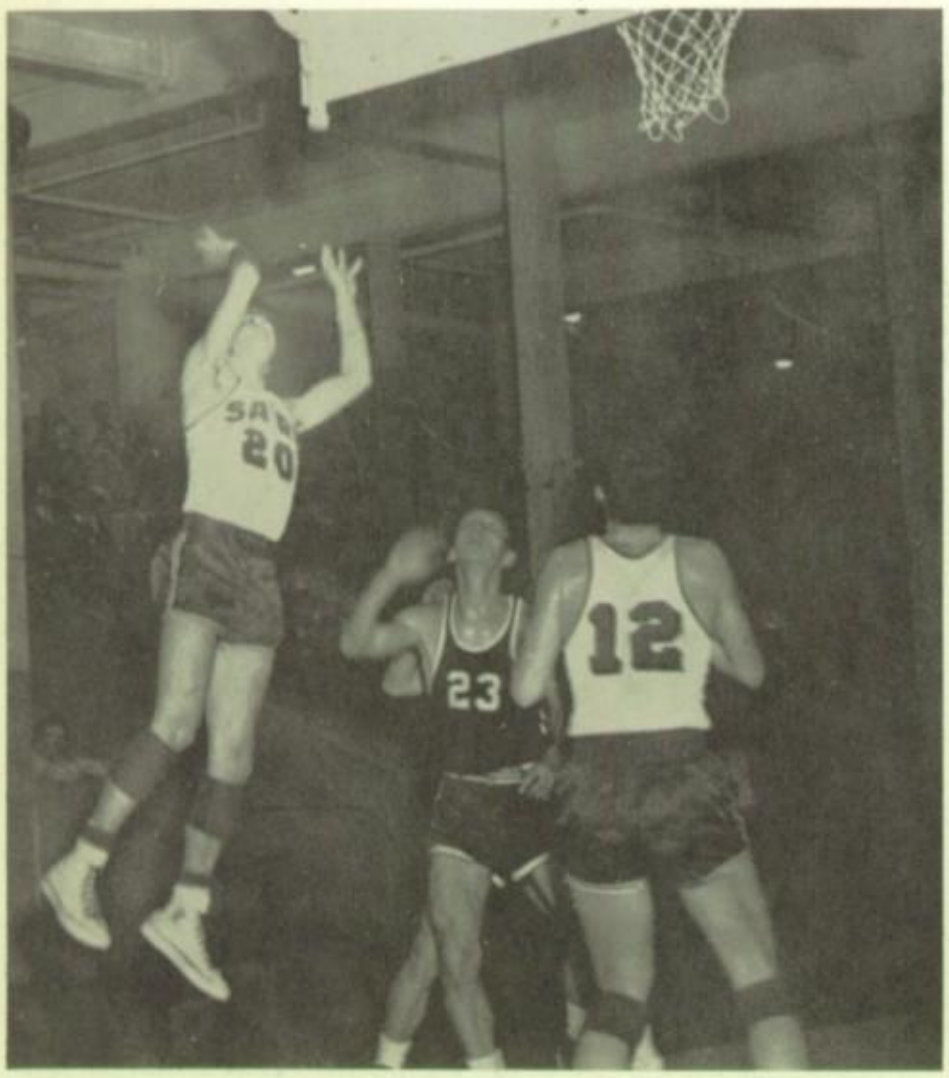
Against arch-rival Athens, the 'Skins' shooting was fantastic. They held a 58-31 lead at halftime and coasted to an 85-64 win. The hot streak continued against Towanda as the 'Skins rolled up 95 to Towanda's 68.

Troy visited Sayre and surprised everybody. After 3 periods, the count was 40-39, Sayre. But the Sayre team found the range in the last quarter and pulled away to win 68-52. A trip to Williamsport found the flashy Millionaires playing a great brand of ball to win 84-65.

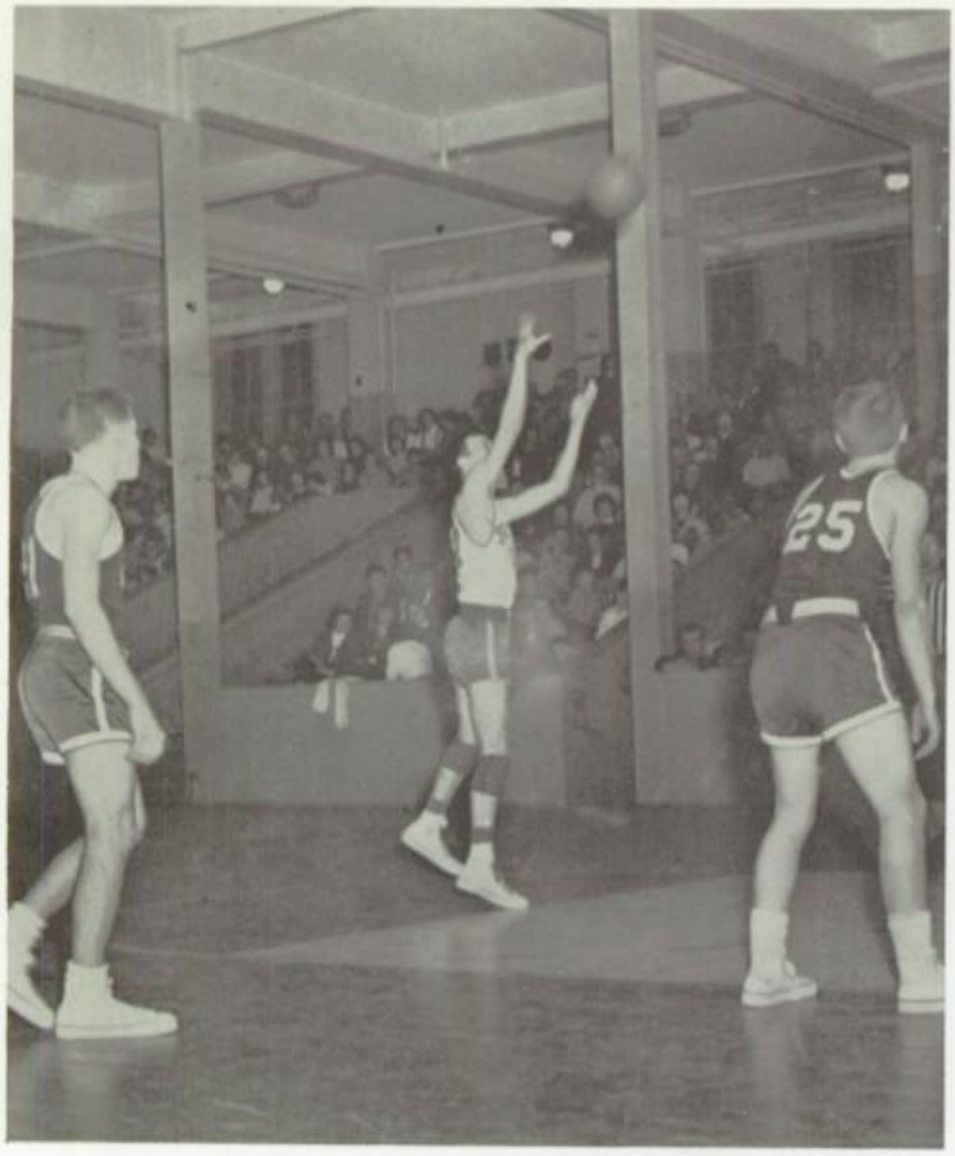
Along with Canton's defeat, the 'Skins' 87-71 pasting of Wyalusing moved Sayre into a tie for first in the league. In the return with Waverly, the Redskins had the range again as they took an early lead and rolled on to a 92-63 win.

In a return game at Sayre, Athens fell 77-60. After a shaky start, the Redskins came on strong to win going away.

High-flying Tom Flynn puts in two more.



Scanlin shoots a jump shot against Canton.



Hugh Baird on the foul line, against Johnson City.

JUNIOR VARSITY

First row: Coach Johnson, Deubler, Keeney, Tyson, Chacona, Park, Johnson, Solomon.

Second row: Miller, Dugan, Pietro, Machutes, Johnston, Scanlin, Maurer, Havens.

BASEBALL

Bill Scanlin connects for another long drive.

The 1957 edition of the Sayre Redskins baseball team was the best in several years. The over-all record of five wins, six losses and a tie that wasn't played off is misleading; two of the losses, to Athens and Towanda, were extra inning games. Indeed, the second Wyalusing game decided the championship of the RTL. That game itself was close until the last two innings, when Wyalusing pulled away to win.

Sayre's catcher, John (Yogi) Carroll, was honored when he received the I-R Sportsmanship award for baseball. This team lost only three men, so in 1958 the team should be even stronger.

First row: Parks, Solomon, Pietro.

Second row: Newman, Keene, Scanlin, Mandarano, Brehm, Maxim, Flynn, Stravyes, Benjamin, Carroll, Collins.

Third row: Chacona, Noone, Nobles, Schmidt, House, Deubler, Ciavardini, Gleockner, Nittinger, Coach Hunt.

TRACK

Sayre's track team got their season off to a good start by defeating Troy and Towanda in a three-cornered meet, scoring 58 points to 36 for Troy and 30 for Towanda. But then the Athens powerhouse came to Sayre and walked away with an 82⅔ to 35⅓ victory. After an easy win over Wyalusing, Sayre was second in the Valley meet. Then the Redskins walloped Waverly 75 to 34. In the last three meets, the Sayre' Invitational, District Four, and Bradford County meet, Sayre finished second to Athens.

The high point of the season was in the Bradford County meet, when the Sayre mile relay team beat the favored Athens quartet by two-tenths of a second in a thrilling race. Attending the state meet with Coach Frank Downing were Bud and Dido Brown, Mike Kennedy, Jerry Pedini, Mickey Potter, Red Vail, Bill Sjostrom, Bernard Dugan, Paul Comerinsky, Charlie Wells, Paul Hutsick, and Larry Parsons.

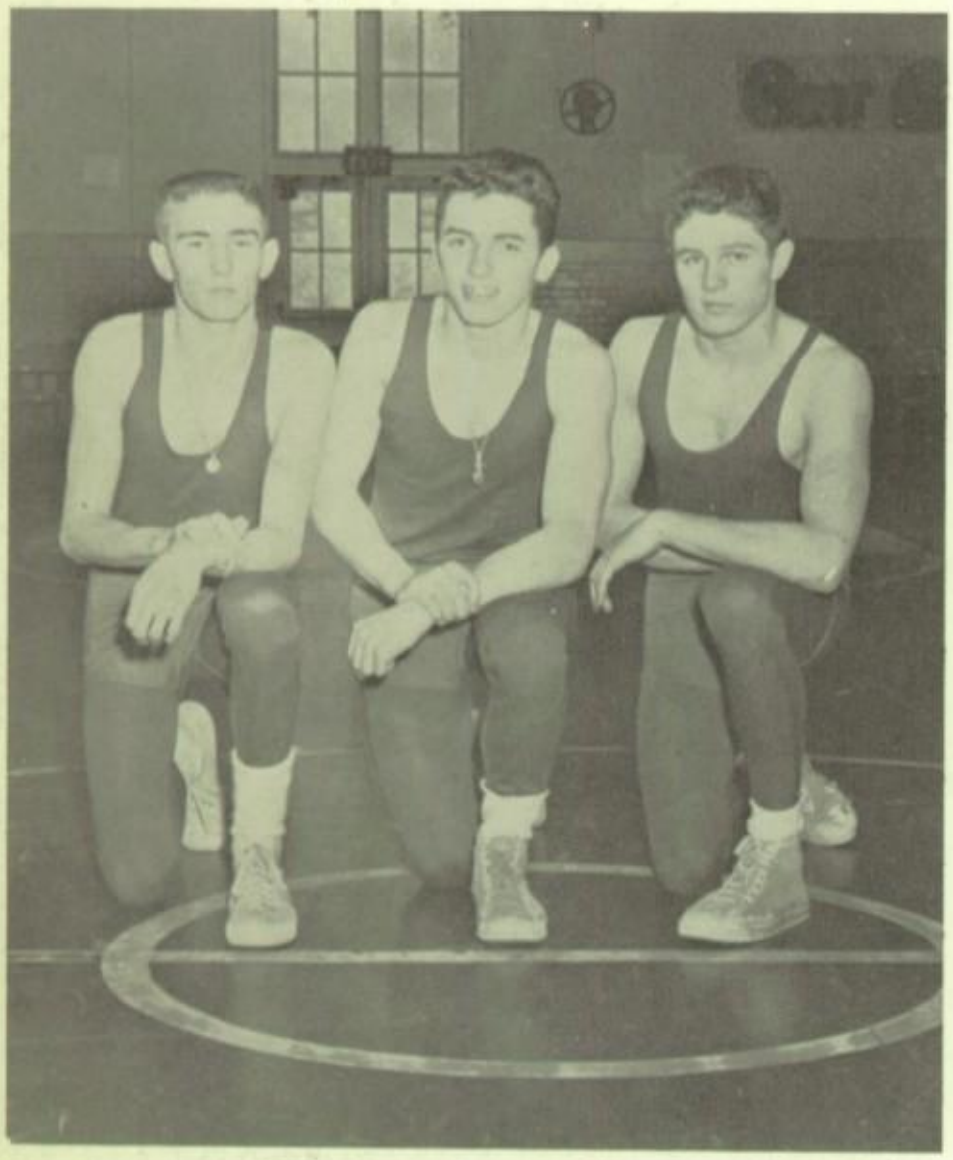
WRESTLING



TEAM CAPTAINS: Lattimer, Carroll, Kennedy.

One thing the Redskins could have used, but didn't get, in their second wrestling season, was a little bit of old-fashioned luck. The men of coach Carl Meyer performed quite well. Injuries and the rather strange happening that Sayre lost three meets by a total of six points cost Sayre a better record.

Sayre visited Towanda and took a pasting 40-6. The Redskins hosted Troy and smothered them 30-17. Then came two heart-breakers. The grapplers from S-R-U upset the 'Skins 27-24, and the powerful Green Hornets from Wellsboro finally took a 26-25 squeaker.

The Redskins hosted S-R-U, and really turned the tables, blasting them 33-6. The Warriors from Canton eked out a 27-25 win. Sayre got back on the winning side by defeating Wyalusing 34-13.

The league champions, Towanda, came to Sayre and left with a 35-11 win. In the most exciting match of the season, Sayre and Waverly battled to a 25-25 draw. The 'Skins smacked Troy again 36-13.

Wellsboro beat Sayre 32-6, winning all but two matches. Sayre moved into second place in the RTL league by defeating Canton 23-19.

Kneeling: McWatters, Carroll, Diehl, Kennedy, Lattimer, Anthony.

Standing: Morgan, McNeal, Rifenberg, Retter, Epstein, Loomis, Orlowski, Coach Meyer.

WE SHALL CHERISH THE MEMORY . . .

Books are the tangible symbol of our years in school. But there are so many intangibles—the fellowship of our classmates, the enjoyment of the varied activities, and the attainment of knowledge.

Memories of our years at Sayre High School crowd into our minds—the first few years of perplexity followed by the maturing years in which we came to know ourselves and our ambitions.

And now as we approach graduation we remember most vividly the crowded and frantic days that we experienced as seniors, the unexpected vacations because of epidemic and snowstorms, the exultation over a championship basketball team, the bonds of friendship with our foreign students, the fads and the follies, the never-ending struggle with homework.

Commencement will find us going our separate ways but we shall cherish the memory of all that we have shared, together with the realization of the opportunities our alma mater has given us.

This 1958 Sayrenade cannot bring back all that has passed before. But perhaps in the days ahead it will, in some measure, add a warmth to our fading memories.

Bremen High School
504 Georgia Ave.
Bremen, Georgia 30110

Heaven in '87

The 1986-1987 school year at Bremen High School was an average year. Little seventh graders ran around the lower hall hoping not to be late, and the Juniors and Seniors strolled around the top hall hoping to be late. The same love/hate realtionships took place in the back stair-well; the 7th graders still got hit on the head with classrings. The faces here change; they grow older; they move on and new ones appear. The faces change, but Bremen High does not. BHS stays the same.
